GLOBAL COALITION ON YOUTH, PEACE AND SECURITY

The Global Coalition on Youth, Peace and Security (GCYPS) is the leading platform for shaping global policy and practice on youth, peace, and security. The GCYPS facilitates exchange, coordination, and collaboration between more than 70 organizations from civil society, including youth-led and youth-focused organizations, UN entities, donors, academia and inter-governmental bodies. The GCYPS is co-chaired by the United Network of Young Peacebuilders (UNOY Peacebuilders), Search for Common Ground (SFCG) and the United Nations (Peacebuilding Support Office – PBSO and United Nations Population Fund – UNFPA).

Background

Originally called the Working Group on Youth and Peacebuilding, the GCYPS was established in 2012 as part of the broader United Nations Inter-Agency Network on Youth Development (IANYD). It was renamed after the launch of The Missing Peace: Independent Progress Study on Youth, Peace and Security, mandated by Security Council Resolution 2250 (2015), following the recommendation to establish YPS coalitions to ensure “a collective impact on YPS at local, national, regional and global levels”.

Objectives

The objective of the GCYPS is to strengthen youth participation in peacebuilding policy and practice. The GCYPS is a platform for member organizations to:

- Support policy and programmatic efforts in the field of youth, peace and security;
- Enable partnerships between youth, multilateral, governmental and civil society actors;
- Generate collective knowledge on youth, peace and security;
- Monitor progress and measure the impact of the implementation of UN Security Council Resolutions 2250 (2015) and 2419 (2018);
- Advocate for young people’s meaningful and inclusive participation in policy-making at the global, regional and national levels.
January: Creation of the Working Group on Youth and Peacebuilding, as part of the UN Inter-Agency Network on Youth Development (IANYD).

April: Working Group publishes the Guiding Principles on Young People’s Participation in Peacebuilding, defining nine overarching principles to ensure meaningful involvement of young people in building peace.

January: Working Group publishes the Practice Note: Young People’s Participation in Peacebuilding, to inform policymakers and donors about key strategic and programming considerations for supporting young people’s participation in peacebuilding.

February 2-5: First face-to-face planning meeting of Working Group in New York, to define strategic priorities for 2016 in the follow-up to the adoption of UNSCR 2250.

August: UN Secretary General appoints Graeme Simpson as lead author of the Progress Study mandated by Security Council Resolution 2250, as well as an Advisory Group of 21 experts. The development of the Progress Study was supported by a Steering Committee of 34 organizations.

March 22-23: Annual strategic meeting of the Working Group in New York to assess progress of the implementation of UNSCR 2250 and agree on priorities to move the implementation forward.

June: UNOY & SfCG publish Mapping a Sector: Bridging the Evidence Gap on Youth-Driven Peacebuilding, as a contribution to the Progress Study.

September 21: Ministerial-level side-event on “Reaffirming Commitment to YPS Agenda”, during the high-level week of the UN General Assembly in NY.

April: Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan chairs an open debate at the UN Security Council on “The role of youth in countering violent extremism and promoting peace”.

September: Global Youth Summit Against Violent Extremism held in NY, leads to Youth Action Agenda to Prevent Violent Extremism & Promote Peace.
